AUTHORITY: Implementing and authorized by Section 62 of the Higher Education Student Assistance Act [110 ILCS 947/62].

SOURCE: Adopted at 40 Ill. Reg. 1968, effective January 7, 2016; amended at 45 Ill. Reg. 8468, effective July 1, 2021; amended at 50 Ill. Reg. _____, effective _____.

Section 2743.10 Summary and Purpose

- a) The Grant Program for Exonerees and their Dependents (Program) provides direct grant assistance to an individual who has received a pardon from the Governor of the State of Illinois stating that the pardon is issued on the grounds of innocence of the crime for which the individual was imprisoned or an individual who has received a certificate of innocence from a circuit court pursuant to Section 2-702 of the Code of Civil Procedure [735 ILCS 5]. If the individual has not yet exhausted the grant assistance, the Program will provide grant assistance with the unexpended portion to one or more designated dependents. Grants are limited based on funding levels appropriated by the Illinois General Assembly.
- b) This Part establishes rules that govern the Program. Additional rules and definitions are contained in 23 Ill. Adm. Code 2700 (General Provisions).

Section 2750.30 Program Procedures

- a) An application for an iGROW award must be submitted annually, and an applicant must also complete the FAFSA® or the Alternative Application for Illinois Financial Aid. In order to receive priority consideration for an award, an ISAC application and the ~~federal~~-FAFSA or Alternative Application must be completed and received by a date established each year by the Commission and posted on the ISAC website, preceding the academic year for which the scholarship is being requested. No applications will be considered for processing if received after the published date unless funds remain available for disbursement.

  - 1) Applications are available on ISAC's website ~~(isac.org)~~.
  - 2) If the application is incomplete, ISAC will notify the applicant, who will have an opportunity to furnish the missing information. The application will only be considered for processing as of the date the application is complete and received by ISAC at ISAC's Deerfield office.
- b) Scholarship assistance is limited to the full-time enrollment equivalent of 8 semesters or 12 quarters of payment for undergraduate study.
- c) ISAC will annually determine a maximum award amount. Award funds may not exceed the full costs of tuition and fees, and room and board, also referred to as "housing and food", respectively, which is# the amount of the standard housing and food allowance used for all undergraduate students, at a public institution. [110 ILCS 947.65/120] For recipients at private institutions, the award may not exceed the maximum amount payable to a student enrolled in the most expensive comparable program of study at a public institution.

NOTICE OF ADOPTED AMENDMENTS

- d) Awards are payable only for two semesters or three quarters in an academic year.
- e) ISAC shall select the recipients from among those who have submitted complete applications and have supplied required information, including qualified and timely new and renewal applicants.
- f) Awarding priority shall be given to renewal applicants who continue to meet the eligibility requirements; ~~then those applicants who demonstrate academic excellence, demonstrate financial need or minority applicants.~~ Once renewal applicants have been awarded, the awarding methodology shall consider financial need and academic excellence, ~~financial need and minority status~~ as evenly-weighted separate values that will be summed to determine an overall priority score.
- g) The total number of awards in a given fiscal year is contingent upon available funding. If funding is insufficient to pay all eligible applicants, awarding will be based on the date the completed application is received by ISAC in ISAC's Deerfield office.
- h) Each qualified applicant who is selected to receive a scholarship shall be notified by ISAC. Applicants not receiving the scholarship will be notified as well.
- i) The total amount of funds awarded to a qualified recipient in a given academic year, when added to other financial aid available to the qualified recipient for that year, shall not exceed the cost of attendance. If the amount of financial aid to be awarded to a qualified student exceeds the institution's cost of attendance, the iGROW Tech Scholarship shall be reduced by the amount by which the cost of attendance is exceeded. [110 ILCS 947.65/120]
- j) If the recipient receives other assistance targeted specifically for tuition, fees, and room and board expenses, the combined assistance shall not exceed the total tuition, fees, and room and board expenses incurred by the recipient, and if it does, the institution shall reduce one of the awards accordingly.
- k) If the recipient is eligible for assistance under MAP, the recipient may not be eligible for a full iGROW award because MAP must be factored into the financial aid package prior to receiving iGROW assistance. The institution, however, may request an iGROW award to finance tuition and fees expenses not paid by MAP.

consideration for an award, the application, including all required documentation, must be completed and received by a priority date established and posted on the ISAC website each year that will precede the academic year for which the scholarship is being requested.

- 1) The Journalism Student Scholarship Program application is available on ISAC's website.
  - 2) If the scholarship application is incomplete, ISAC will notify the applicant. The applicant will then have an opportunity to furnish the missing information; however, the application will only be considered for processing as of the date when the application is complete and received by ISAC.
- b) Award funds shall be applicable only toward tuition and fees for an award year after other financial aid received, up to a maximum of $5,000.
  - c) Within the constraints of annual appropriation levels, two semester or three quarter term payments are made directly to the institution.
  - d) ISAC shall select recipients from among those who have submitted complete applications and have supplied required information, including qualified timely renewal and new applicants.
  - e) Awarding priority shall be given to renewal applicants, meaning those who were paid a Journalism Student Scholarship benefit in the previous award year, who continue to meet the eligibility requirements. Preference will be given to applicants preparing to work in underserved areas.
  - f) The total number of awards in a given fiscal year is contingent on available funding. If funding is insufficient to pay all eligible applicants, awarding will be based on the date the completed application is received by ISAC.
  - g) Each qualified applicant who is selected to receive an award shall be notified by ISAC. Applicants not receiving the award will also be notified.
  - h) The total amount of funds awarded to a qualified recipient in any given academic year, when added to other financial aid available to the qualified recipient for that year, shall not exceed tuition and fees. If the amount of financial aid to be awarded to a qualified student exceeds the institution's cost of attendance, the scholarship shall be reduced by the amount by which the cost of attendance is exceeded.

- i) ISAC pays award funds directly to the institution of record in the name of the recipient.
- j) The qualified applicant must agree to sign an agreement under which the recipient pledges that within the 2-year period following the termination of the academic program for which the recipient was awarded a scholarship, the recipient shall:
  - 1) begin working in journalism in this State for a period of not less than 2 years;
  - 2) fulfill this obligation at local news organization; and
  - 3) upon request of the Commission, provide the Commission with evidence that the recipient is fulfilling or has fulfilled the terms of the teaching agreement provided for in this subsection. [110 ILCS 947/65.130]

Section 2755.40 Institutional Procedures

- a) The institution shall submit eligibility information for qualified applicants in sufficient time for ISAC to make award announcements.
- b) Scholarship awards are paid directly to the approved institution of record that certifies to ISAC that the applicant is an eligible recipient.
  - 1) ISAC will annually establish priority claim dates for the submission of payment requests and inform schools of the required priority dates.
  - 2) Late payment requests will result in delayed processing of payments. Payment requests are processed in the sequence of receipt by ISAC and as funds are available.
  - 3) Institutions may submit their payment requests beginning 10 days prior to the start of classes for the term for which payment is being requested.
- c) ISAC shall disburse scholarship funds in two or three installments, depending on the number of terms financed by the scholarship. Multiple disbursements shall not be required in cases where the applicant's eligibility is not determined until the final term of the academic year for which the scholarship is being awarded or when a student is attending only one term and the maximum award does not exceed the student's cost of attendance.

- d) Funds shall be remitted by ISAC to institutions on behalf of the recipients.
- e) Upon receipt of scholarship funds, the institution shall verify the recipient's enrollment status for the term for which the award was intended. If enrolled, the institution may credit the scholarship funds to the recipient's account for expenses due and payable. The balance of the disbursement shall be released to the recipient.
- f) Upon receipt of the scholarship funds, if the recipient has withdrawn from enrollment for the terms for which the award was intended, the institution shall return the amount of the scholarship payment to ISAC.
- g) The scholarship is applicable only toward tuition and mandatory fees. The total amount of scholarship assistance awarded to a qualified applicant in an award year, when added to other financial aid available to the qualified applicant for that year, cannot exceed the cost of attendance.
- h) To provide sufficient time for processing and vouchering through the State Comptroller's Office in Springfield, all payment requests must be received by ISAC no later than July 1.

NOTICE OF ADOPTED RULE

- 1) A qualified community foundation's Community Foundation Partner Participation Agreement may automatically be renewed annually for a period of five years upon the annual submission of the following items to ISAC within 60 days of the close of its fiscal year.
  - A) An annual report summarizing its loan repayment activity, as further defined in Section 2776.40(b).
  - B) Notice of any changes or a statement of no changes to any of the required documentation listed in Section 2776.2(a).
- c) A qualified community foundation will be notified if their Agreement has been automatically renewed following the submission of the annual items listed in Section 2776.20(b), or
- d) A qualified community foundation that does not timely submit the annual items listed in Section 2776.20(b) will need to reapply for the Program, and if approved, may enter into a new community foundation partner participation agreement.

Section 2776.30 Program Procedures

- a) ISAC will advertise the Program on its website.
- b) ISAC will develop and post on its website an application for qualified community foundations to participate in the Program, provide information on the application contents, and any necessary supplementary materials.
- c) ISAC will notify applicants when their application is submitted and when it is complete. If the application is incomplete, ISAC will notify the applicant, who will have an opportunity to furnish the missing information. If a qualified community foundation does not submit a complete application, the applicant cannot be considered for participation in the Program.
- d) ISAC will review all application information and supplementary materials and make a determination on whether the qualified community foundation meets the requirements of the Act and of this Part to participate in the Program.
- e) Approved qualified community foundations will receive written notice of their approval and may begin the community foundation Partner Participation Agreement process with ISAC. Any applicant that is not approved for
